WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1854.

STATE OF EUROPE.

The Southampton mails of October 9th announce a very lively state of things in Europe. Poland, Slesvig-Holstein, and Mexico are the three great difficulties, in each of which the Imperial wizard of France seems to assume a passive role, while watching their development with anxiety, and ready at an hour's notice to turn the balance in favour of his own 'idea.'

Instead we hear of no important engagements between the patriots and Russian troops, yet the revolution may be said to gain ground, as the whole country is now in arms, and the barbarities of ouravieff and his lieutenants have banished all hope of pacification, for an indefinite period. Wholesale pillage and murder have driven the people into desperation, while priest-banging has imparted the character of a religious persecution, in what history has always proved the sufferers to be ultimately successful. Meantime 50,000 Cossacks have been sent to reinforce the Russian army of occupation and the soldiers of St. Petersburg are haughtily rejected the notes of France, England and Austria. The two latter powers, as guardians of the treaty of 1815, are bound to interfere, yet shrink from the task; while Napoleon who has boasted that he will scatter this treaty to the winds, seems little disposed to vindicate it, even in favour of an oppressed people, meditating probably the entire reconstruction of the ancient kingdom when events prove more favourable. Thus Gortchakoff's reply, regarded by the "Moniteur" as an ultimatum, has been passed over in silence, and the fate of Poland left to depend on the continuation of hostilities during the winter.

The Congress of Frankfort has put a finishing stroke to the Slesvig-Holstein question, by ordering Austria, Prussia and Hanover to send 6000 men each to Holstein and Lauenburg, as parts of the German Confederation (of which the King of Denmark is accidentally Duke). Saxony and Bavaria are charged with the civil administration of the Duchies, and in case Denmark refuses to obey the great German powers are to march sufficient forces in aid of the Federal authority. This will bring to an immediate conflict, and the entrance of Copenhagen by the allies and the alliance of Sweden, both as countries of English sympathy. Britain has therefore a right to look for the active assistance of Germany, but Earl Russell will probably not avail of the opportunity, but confine his efforts to the Baltic, leaving the Danes in a supercilious state, notwithstanding their late army, and the gunboats of Sweden. Napoleon can withdraw Pelissier to Scandinavia, and this settles the long agitated question of Slesvig-Holstein, for its either the Austrians will soon be over the Eyder, or Denmark.

The arch-duke Maximilian, owing his chance of a throne to Napoleon thinks his mode of election should also be by popular suffrage. He requires still further guarantees, which neither the Western deputation nor anybody else can give, and is therefore said in a guarded refusal of the dangerous honour, to discover the conceit of his Legitimist brother of Austria made among us, and Francis Joseph is known to be strongly opposed to the project. In this emergency it is probable Napoleon will find a necessity for the pulse of ontenanza in the person of Murat or Pierre Bonaparte, as the claims of Don Juan de Bourbon seem entirely forgotten. General Balzaino succeeds Marshal Forey who returns to France, and the progress of French rule in Mexico is marked by rapid strides. The list published of 7140 martyrs, either butchered or plundered by Juarez' agents, has produced a great sensation, and every friend of humanity blesses the intervention which has put a stop to the reign of terror.

As Austria was again threatening to complicate European relations. Events might bring a crowning disaster to the federal arms, which instead of favouring the prospects of peace make the cabinet of Washington more determined to retrieve lost glory, and jealous of foreign interference. England continues her wavering policy, bending to an interest to the haughty demands of the Northerns, but France has probably ere this begun decided hostilities. A collision was keenly expected between French and Federal gunboats at Matamoras, and the recognition of the Southern Confederacy would quickly follow. Nothing could be more attractive than Rosencrate's defeat by the rebel general Bragg, and Gilmore's failure to capture Charleston in spite of the dozen victories to the indomitable Southerns.

Another plea has been passed over the new kingdom of Greece. The Bavarian Leg slature has voted annexation to the crown of Athens. But where is the new monarch, the elect of Europe who is to repair the ruins of Otho's misgovernment? King George is wasting most precious hours in filling through the parks of London, or honoring the fashionable theatres with his presence. Was it for this that Rozzaris bled and Byron sung, that the citizens of Piræus expelled the Bavarian princes, and Denmark resigned itself to the loss of a branch of royalty? While riot and anarchy increase at Athens, the king finds his only chance for his ambitious ation, by promising to visit the Acropolis when things become quiet.

The only continuous life manifested to the Italian populace, and although "Italia e Monte" was badly played out at the Aspromonte, there is an evident intention to make some general effort to surprise attack on the Austrians in Venice. Charles Albert was right to commence Italian regeneration by expelling the Austrian garrison from the capital, but Victor Emmanuel inverted this order, and has produced civilizer in one of the most benighted states of Europe. Piedmontia, the great object of retaination. The Pope holds his ground in Rome, where a sob non jubilee has lately taken place, and where the Holy Father blesses walked in the procession from St. John Lateran's, at which 150,000 persons as isted.

The Suez Ship is making some advances, and the benefit of a strong united Government is already being felt in railways, banks, and agricultural improvements now spreading across the country, from the Mediterranean to the Adriatic.

The young Queen of Portugal has just been confined of an heir to the throne, and the Empress Eugenie is gone to congratulate her on the happy event. The Empress intends afterwards to visit Pius IX. at Rome.

In miscellaneous events, we read of the earthquake in Murcia, the failure of M. Mallet's balloon at Paris, the departure of a band of French Jesuits to convert Madagascar, the row in Parliament on the Russian Medal, the return of the Fleet, the Lecture by Cardinal Wiseman, at Southampton Institute, the diminution of distress in Lancashire, the visit of Prince Napoleon to London.

News from the Colonies is very unsatisfactory. Canada is beginning to feel the fears of American invasion, and the separation of the Upper from the lower Provinces. New Zealand is in very bad hands in South Massacres, whose numbers are greatly increasing. India is menaced by hands of armed Affghans who have been on a predatory excursion against British rule. Japan has declared its resolution to expel all foreigner, which will bring on a common attack by the naval powers of Europe.

THE "SITUATION"

The situation of this country, at the present moment, demands our attention, and that we regard the position critical, but that we judge it opportune that our readers, both at home and abroad, should have a proper means of using of the real state of a country about which so much has been said and sung.

Congress is at last closed, not to be opened until next May. Many of its laws are not only of a highly beneficial nature, but evince a praiseworthy disposition, on the part of our legislators, to do all that lay in their power to promote the best interests of the country.

The National Debt Bill has been passed.

The Cordoba Railway Bill has been passed.

The Foreign Coin Bill is a law.

These three bills alone are sufficient to rescue our legislature from the obloquy which opponent politicians try to throw on the second session of Congress.

The state of the interior is promising, and although the 'Chacho' still holds unsubjugated sway in some parts, the great reaction of which we have heard so much, has subsided, and our provincial friends are beginning to believe that their interests are consulted by the present Government.

In one or two provinces our disinterested efforts to increase the industry of the country are beginning to have effect. Corrientes to-day is fifty years ahead of the Corrientes of last year. We leave it to our readers to say whether Urquiza or the 'Standard' deserve the compliment at last; the ants and the 'Tatuna' have done their best to oppose us in every way in their power, notwithstanding all opposition, we have every reason for believing that the 'Standard' will yet be the means of saving The Flores' party attacks us; General Mitre even deserts us; the Porteños abuse us. But reparation is at hand. The first bales of Argentine cotton will crush all our enemies—all our lukewarm friends—and confuse to future generations the name of a paper which has acted up to its motto—"Nil fidei alienum mi veri non audeam dicere.'

Still, notwithstanding all our efforts to crush revolution and augment our industry, the present state of the country is by no means satisfactory.

The Provincial Legislature of Buenos Ayres has remitted to the National Government a long hum-drum protest upon Federal jurisdiction.

An infamous war is still desolating the Uruguay Republic, which an supply affects us all. Disturbances will tax us to support, and in many of the provinces industry is paralyzed, commerce annihilated, and plunder and spine the order of the day.

The ports are alarmingly inferior to our imports. Our Custom-house regulations have become such a nuisance, that shipowners and masters at some ports refuse to make a second visit to the River Plate. Our paper currency is daily depreciating; our army is in open mutiny; our Exchequer without a dollar.

Many, no doubt, will say, that we paint the present state of this country in rather gloomy colours, but those who will disprove any of our statements. Sadly convinced of the lethargy of our National Executive, we call upon it to act, if not immediately in the hopes of bettering our condition. Peace, no matter at what price or upon what sacrifice, should be made with Peñalosa, Urquiza, and between the local and national governments, should be arranged 'cost or no cost,' and not brought before the public

Every legitimate effort should be resorted to to evidence our desire to bring about peace in the Banda Oriental. Revolution should be publicly and emphatically denounced, and the news papers which refuse to do so at home or abroad should be re-mored. President Mitre should enlarge himself in supplying the public with statistical tables of the agricultural produce of every part of the Republic, instead of talking of armaments and making bombshells.

There does not exist a man in this country who could tell us this moment the exact number of sheep or cattle in the Republic. With all our Congresses, gentlemen, Colonists, and Estancieros not an Argentine who can tell us the precise number of employers and employed, of land cultivated, of cereals and other crops raised. What a lamentable state for a country! Is it any wonder that we are infested with a set of revolutionary and unprincipled agitators—that our friends should write to us from London that no one there has the least trust in a country about which there is so little known, and that the public men are as ignorant of the industrial wealth of their country as they are of the surface of the Pampas. We call for tables, for figures; we preach emigration; we spend our money to introduce cotton; we invite foreign capital. President Mitre, we ask for statistics. Don't tell us about the bullets cast in the Parque, or the swords manufactured in the Retiro.

Tell us of the products of Salta, its mounts and its exports,

Tell us of the vintage of Jujur, which grows wild on the Vermejo—of the cochineal of Oran

Tell us of the mineral wealth of San Juan, one of the richest that we were ordered in it. Tell us of the cotton of Catamarca, of the sheep of Cordova, of the wines of Mendoza, of the dye crops of Santa Fe Entre Rios and Corrientes evince signs of improvement, we ask of you nothing concerning them; give us statistics of the other provinces.

The situation in the country under a careful and judicious administration is such as that which we believe the present Government to be, is good. A little exertion on the part of our ministers may enable us to publish the real wealth of the country.

We ask of the National Government of reform its Custom-house, and give us statistics to go by: the rest we will take care of. We will people the pampas, and develop Argentine resources. The situation of the country is good, but we must improve it.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The non-arrival of the 'Libertad' from Montevideo caused strange rumours to circulate through town yesterday. Some believed that Medina had at last caught Flores, defeated his army, and sent the would-be regent a-la Mr. Monteviden in irons; while others regarded the non arrival of the steamer as convincing proof that Medina had been defeated, and that at this date Flores is before the walls of Montevideo. We leave our readers to judge for themselves.

San Isidro is now becoming the most fashionable suburb about town. The price of building lots is really enormous, and houses rent in a decent line of town. A good hotel in the Belgravia style is badly wanted. Victimized "Commercial" assures us that the only thing like a dinner he could get in the whole town was roasted Italian sausage and a repugnant 'beef' cutlet.

The Standard takes no part in the political line is Flores' protest against the Baron Mauá. The weather is, however, too good for it in Spanish; we hope the 'Tribuna' people will publish it in English, so that we can know what it is all about.

A great split has taken place in what is called the 'Unitarian' party. The ancient-out Unitarios are called 'Crudos' and the more temperate ones 'Cocidos.' The Crudos, however, to the exceeding bile the Crudos have become all Cocidos.

We understand the Engineer for the Salto Navigation Works, Mr. Koch, has arrived, per steamer, and to-morrow leaves for the provinces. This scheme of Sor. Roma seems as if ultimately it will be carried out.

By latest dates from San Antonio de Areco we learn that business is very dull, the camps extremely dry, and the sheep dying off. The Fair at Areco, for the purpose of selecting the new judges, has been sent in. The names are Sor. Urioste, Don Bilbao, and Don Domingo Gomez. We hear that all the three declined the proposed honor.

Letters are requested by a subscriber to call the attention of t ose whom it may concern to the disgusting filthy state of the interior of the American Church. The benches are in a terrible state, and weeks have been allowed to accumulate to such a degree, that common respect for the house of God does not arouse the people to a sense of their culpable sqiuineness.

Our despatches from the Carmen de Areco are very meagre. The drought is going on: paper money, rain, and hollock carts are awfully wanted. Sr. Ramos has been offered the Judgeship of Areco, but owing to a severe loss, has with thanks. On most of the estancias the sheep farmers have had a splendid season. The weighing machine which lies between San Antonio and the Fortin, is said to have been sold, or about to be sold, to an Irishman in two million two square leagues, has a magnificent estancia house, several puestos, and several thousand sheep and horned cattle. We have no news to give.

Our advices from the South are recent. The wool is of a better colour than last year, but the price remains at Magdalena: the grass is high, and the stock in good condition Sixty thousand sheep have been sold the other day by Mr. Hutchinson, and 4000 head of cattle besides in town, to a company in Patagones. The sheep are at present at a place called Laguna Chelforo, which is very far South. The price is to be carded as a great secret, but, we believe that it is 40 bits on long credit. Sheep are very much saleable in the far South than even cattle. A rodeo of 900 horned cattle was sold on Monday, by a broker at 85, half cash. The cattle, we are told, are very poor condition, and cannot be moved off their pasturage. Another sale of cows, to the number of 1500, was made by the same South, 5000 more or less, at 70. cash.

From the drought we have gloomy advices all round. The grass is burnt up, crops, and are beginning to saw grain. The mass of last year is even still lying in heaps, in many parts letting, owing to the impossibility of sending it to market; the loss and waste of last year's sale is a crop of indian corn, through the whole country. It is the duty of the Government to see that the farmers were supplied with carts, it rests the great, at discretion upon the Government and his Excellency. The probabilities are that the maiz next year will be worth 50 the meqio, whilst this year the crop was so plentiful that the unfortunate farmers could not even get carriers to take it to town for the freight. The Tribuna people no doubt will say "such is life," but we think it is the duty of a paternal

THE BRAZILIAN LOAN.

The following are the particulars of this loan, which was all subscribed for in four hours on the London Stock Exchange :—

The Imperial Brazilian Four-and-a-Half per Cent. Loan for £3,300,000 has been announced by Messrs. Rothschild and Sons. The price of emission is to be 88, and the proceeds are to be applied to the redemption in London of the balances of the Five per Cent. Loan of 1842, amounting to £3,629,000, due on the 1st of January, 1864; to the redemption of the balances of the Five per Cent. Loans of 1824 and 1829, amounting together to £2,357,900, due on the 1st of April, 1864; and to discharging in Brazil, with the balance, the floating Treasury Bonds. The rate of interest is to be 4½ per cent. per annum, in coupons payable half-yearly in London on the 1st of April and the 1st of October. The bonds will be issued for 30 years, and will be absorbed by a sinking fund of £: 1 3s. per cent. per annum, operating half yearly by purchases in the market when at or under par, and by drawing by lot when above par. It will be seen, therefore, that this is no increase of the debt, but the conversion of Five per Cent. Stocks into a Four-and-a-Half per Cent. Stock, which will be a saving to the Brazilian Government. The present price of the Four and a-Half per cent. Stock in the market is 93 to 94, and the margin allowed being sufficient to make the operation attractive, no doubt the total will be speedily subscribed. A deposit of 5 per cent. is to be paid on application, and the instalments are to range from 15 to 10 per cent., the final one being 93 per cent. on the 22nd March. Subsequently to the first payment by anticipation will be allowed a discount at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum.

RIVER PLATE MAIL.

Colonial Buildings, 36 Dale-st., Liverpool, 7th Oct., 1863.

Gentlemen,

Our Wool Market shows great firmness, and during the past month all clean useful kinds, free from burr, are ready for use, have had an upward tendency. The value of long-stapled English wool is also dearer, at least 1d. per lb., and the home consumption being quite fully employed, there is no prospect of lower prices at present in any description.

The transactions in River Plate wool have been on a larger scale than for some time, generally at former prices, or with a slight advance; a good deep grown long-stapled Entre Rios have realized 1d. and 1½d. above June sales' prices, long washed having been sold up to 1s. 5½d., and very superior greasy lambs' and fleece in extra light condition from 1od. to 1s. The sales of Cordova have been limited, but high for good qualities. Santiago of long staple would sell freely at 1s. if in good condition. In consequence of the firm state of our market, and the decrease of cotton, many parcels of fine River Plate wool have been withdrawn for higher prices.

Public sales of 10,000 lb-les of River Plate wool are announced at Antwerp to be held on the 13th to 17th inst., and the rates expected fully to exceed the sales' prices. Our own sales of this description will commence on the 4th of November.

I am, gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
EDMUND BUCKLEY,
Wool Broker.

AN EARTHQUAKE IN England.

At about twenty-five minutes past three o'clock this morning a severe shock of earthquake was felt all over Liverpool and the immediate neighborhoods of Cheshire and Waterloo; indeed according to all accounts the latter place appears to have been much more affected by the shock than either Liverpool or Cheshire. Although there was no rumbling noise—such as generally accompanies phenomena of this kind—still the upheaving of the earth was plecidedly felt, and in some quarters was quite unconfortable. In the vicinity of Egremont and Liscard, on the Cheshire side of the Mersey, some people were seriously "frightened out of their wits" on feeling their beds lose their customary equilibrium and hearing the crockery movings as if intent upon a general smash up. The clocks, too, in many places, unlike the beds and crockery, stopped immediately they had undergone the shock. Several night porters were so alarmed at the oscillation of the houses that they made precipitate retreats. A surgeon, who was visiting a sick patient at Claughton, Birkenhead, so distinctly felt the house shake, and so convinced was he that it was coming down, that he immediately made for the street.

At Bootle, Seaforth, Waterloo, and Crosby the shock, as we said before, was more violent; and in many of the residences the inhabitants were almost terrified at the manner the things turned topsy. In several houses in Bootle out of wine were shook out of the bins, the bells set ringing, glasses and other articles of a fragile nature broken; and, angular as it may appear, the shock shored the fright of some of the household, and commenced a most sympathetic cackle. In the town the shock was also severely felt, and several public houses in the neighbourhood of the Exchange, Sackville-street, Everton, and Kirkdale suffered much in the way of glass. As far as we can at present learn, however, no injury to the person has been sustained, although we understand that there have been one or two cases of premature confinement in consequence of the shock.

The shock was felt all over England. At Hereford, Taunton, and Derby, the shock was so severe that the people rushed out of their houses into the open streets. No loss of lives were lost however.

MEXICAN LOAN.

"A scheme, it is said, is now on foot in Paris and Vienna for raising a Mexican loan to be guaranteed by France, who will hold a certain portion of Mexican territory as security. It will be based on the following conditions—viz., 25 out of the 29 per cent of arrears of interest due to the British bondholders up to January, 1864, is to be capitalised, and the balance paid in cash out of the new loan, which will be a five per cent. one issued at 80. The duties on tobacco and spirits will be doubled, and the whole income derived from this source, hypothecated together with 50 per cent. of all other Customs' duties, to the payment of the interest of the foreign dividends, and to provide a sinking fund for the gradual liquidation of foreign debt, by drawing as is practised in Cuba and Peru. It is proposed with the approval of the bondholders to appoint a mixed commission in the capital of Mexico and the faithful payment of said duties quarterly, and there is to be no preference in the liquidation of the various foreign bonds. The newly isolated peninsula of Lower California, divided from Sonora by a gulf 700 miles long, called the Lake of California or the Vermilion Sea, it is said, will be the territorial security ceded to France. It contains some 60,000 square miles (or about the size of England and Wales), was formerly called New Albion. It abounds in gold, silver, lead, and copper mines, and islands covered with forests of cedar trees. It is, moreover, the nearest point of Mexico to the French possessions in the Pacific.

MARRIED.

At the Church of the Merced on the 17th inst., by the Rev. A. D. Fahy, Mr. William Murphy 'estanciero' of Salto, to Miss Eliza Roche of the Co. Wexford.

The happy couple, after partaking of a splendid breakfast with their friends, started for Moron to spend the Honeymoon.

ON 'CHANGE.

Nov. 17.

Owing to the very severe demand which at present exists for paper money, the circulation is being much taxed. The paper dollar to day was dragged up a trifle by the wool buyers, who came to this conclusion in a spirit of economy. The truth of the matter is that all the combinations amongst the polished monied brokers will not avail to prevent the profitable use of money. It is fast rolling in, and paper money must be forthcoming. The first price quoted for the silver dollar to-day was $27 nicy., after which sellers were very willing to' give way ten cents, the closing price being 26 90, equal to about 4.09 per ounce. There was a rather brisk business done in specie to-day, both on time and for cash. It is said that country are going to Monte before the moment they suffer a little further decline. We, of course, cannot guarantee this statement, but merely give the report for what it is worth.

The wool markets are getting crowded. In the South Plaza the wool of a well-known estancia near the salado has sold to-day at $2. The wool is good, but was in very poor condition, and of a very bad colour. One of the most celebrated lots of wool in the south is expected in market to-morrow. We hear that 998 has been offered the wealthy owner, and declined. About 50 0 arr. were sold to-day in the plaza at prices varying from 76 to 84.

In the North Plaza the arrivals are enormous, and more buyers are to be seen than in the South. We are informed that the highest price paid today was to an Irishman. The lot was small, but in splendid condition: 93 was the price.

Wheat has a decided upward tendency, owing to the reported loss of the crop both in this country and the States

Freights also are very stiff, and looking up, particularly for the States. One English house is chartering largely for Boston, for account of some manufacturer there. We notice the charter of the English brig 'Canuce,' to load in port for Antwerp at 95s. for dry hides, and 4 s. 6d. for bales, and 5 per cent.

The celebrated 'Paley,' the De Boots steamer, will be disposed of by the hammer to-morrow. PRICE SALES.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS.

Doctor Pongerard, (the London University College.)

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronised by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School where a sound commercial education is combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, as well as strict moral treatment of a due and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the moral and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its forms, Writing, and Religious Instruction.

Extra branches such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Dancing are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, is one of the most delightful in Quilmes (Lower Calle Larga) and within very easy reach of the city, is one of the most healthy and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.

For particulars apply at the office of the Standard Office, Calle Belgrano 74.

MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY OF THE DAY

The Shoe-polish curtain and the Public in general.

F. C. Rive, Q. Theaytine & Thresham's Shoe Salve

The great reputation these articles have enjoyed in London, and which they have kept up ever since, is a sufficient guarantee for the public that they will not be imposed upon, but that they will receive the genuine article. The Shoe-polish curtain is the invention of the proprietors, and is the only one that will not injure the leather, and will keep it soft and pliable, and will not crack it, as the generality of Shoe-polishes do. The Shoe-polish curtain is the only one that will not injure the leather, and will keep it soft and pliable, and will not crack it, as the generality of Shoe-polishes do. SAVINGS BANK.
BANK MAUA & C°
— No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great commissions of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

Any sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants o all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age and of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other rivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date,

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 10th 1869.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLCOX LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty fire dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p] per annum which is liquidated every six months

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account Current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
